

NORTHERN VIRGINIA URBAN FORESTRY
QUARTERLY ROUNDTABLE
Opportunities for Urban Forestry with HOAs

Thursday, September 18, 2008 9:30 AM
Reston Association Main Conference Room
1930 Isaac Newton Square, Reston

AGENDA

- 9:30 – 10:00 Registration
- 10:00 – 10:15 Welcome
Cathy Hudgins, Hunter Mill District Supervisor
- 10:15 – 11:00 Reston Association, one of the largest HOAs in the US: Patricia Greenberg, Environmental Resource Supervisor, Reston Association
- 11:00 – 11:45 Banning Invasive Exotic Plants in Reston: Claudia
Thompson-Deahl, Environmental Resource Manager, Reston Association
- 12:00 – 1:00 Lunch
- 1:00 – 1:30 Urban Tree Coverage in Leesburg, the HOA
Connection: Jay Banks, Urban Forester, Town of Leesburg
- 1:30 – 2:30 Panel Discussion: Opportunities for Urban Forestry with HOAs: Representatives of a Small HOA,
Land Management Company, Federation of Citizens
Association, and State Association of HOAs

RSVP to Sarah Rodis sarahr@reston.org by September 10, 2008 or call 703.437.7658. Directions to 1930 Isaac Newton Square, are found on the Reston Association Website: http://www.reston.org/contact/contact_addresses.html. There is plenty of parking at Isaac Newton Sq. The Reston Association office is in the building in the center of the square, surrounded by parking. Isaac Newton Sq. is located two blocks north of Wiehle Park and Ride. Buses leave from West Falls Church metro stop. Check schedules at <http://www.wmata.com/>. We look forward to sharing with you.